Foreword

As we, the seniors, leave Martin to continue along the road of life, may this Martinaire recall those footprints made during our two years here. These footprints cannot be erased but we can correct our mistakes, and build beautiful lives for the future.

DEDICATION

To one old in experience but young in ideas, we respectfully dedicate this MARTINAIRE. We appreciate your quaint sense of humor, your Spanish accent, and your willingness to face the truth. We are proud to be led by a man who will stand by when one is in need and say, "Give the kid a break." We will remember your friendly face and great mind for many years to come. "Bless ye, Doc."

EDGAR HOWARD ELAM

President

B.S.A., University of Tennessee; Graduate Study: University of Chicago; George Peabody College.

To Students, Faculty, and Friends of Martin College:

We congratulate the MARTINAIRE Staff on the production of this annual which gives a colorful and attractive account of the events at Martin College this year.

The students, faculty members, trustees, alumni and friends will cherish through the years this record of a good year at Martin.

There have been many accomplishments. Strong and lasting friendships have been made. College activities have been strenuous, enjoyable, beautiful, and rewarding. Facilities have been crowded and at times the days and weeks seemed too short. The quality of academic work has been high. The successes of alumni continue to cheer us. The spirit of Martin moves on.

The Tennessee Conference of the Methodist Church has almost completed its campaign for $200,000 to provide additional buildings, endowment and needed improvements at the College. It has increased its annual support for the College to $15,000. Generous donors have contributed this year more than $6,000 in scholarships for worthy students. Other gifts for student loans, library and improvements have been received. For all these and other benefits, we are grateful.

Martin has a great heritage. It is planning a future of greater usefulness in which all of us may continue to share.

E. H. ELAM

President

SENIOR CLASS

WAYNE ABERNATHY
Pulaski, Tennessee
Engineering

In his quiet way, Wayne has become a part of Martin. He has shown talent in sports and as a student. He has the ability to make a success as an engineer.

IMOGENE ADKINS
Lynnville, Tennessee
Commerce

"Flash," with her dynamic personality has given us many laughs and good times. Imogene combines an attractive appearance with the other qualities which will make a good secretary.

ELSIE ARNOLD
Waverly, Tennessee
Education

Elsie has maintained a high scholastic record and yet had time for an active social life. She is a hard worker and will make an excellent teacher.

BETTYE CAROL BASS
Prospect, Tennessee
Commerce

Bettye Carol is a good sport and has done a fine job as basketball captain. Bettye Carol is friendly and has the personality to succeed in her commercial work.

JAMES A. BEE
Pulaski, Tennessee
Education

James is a quiet person but is always ready to crack a joke or to laugh at a joke. Even though he is married, he still has fun with the boys.

DAVID BIRDSONG
Pulaski, Tennessee
Commerce

David is a friendly person and a good tennis player. This year we miss seeing Henry, but David has adopted a new twin, James Mathis.

GENE BOYD
Goodsprings, Tennessee
Education

Gene is fun to be around, being always ready to crack a joke. Gene takes his school work seriously because he never lets studying interfere with his education. He should make a good biology teacher.

THOMAS B. BURKS
Unionville, Tennessee
Physical Education

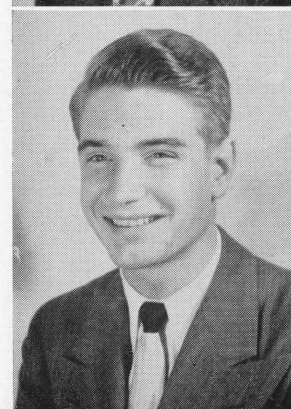

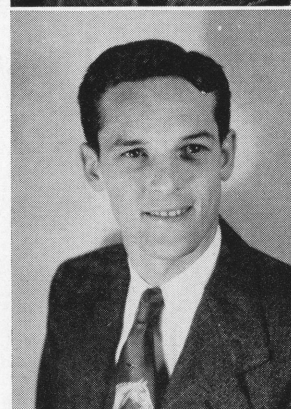

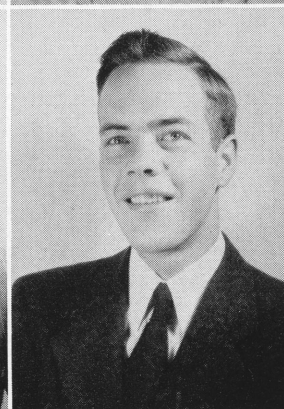

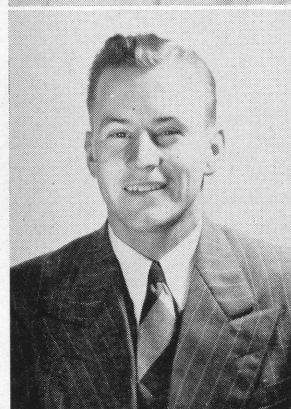

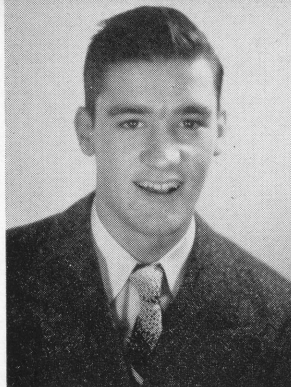

Tommy is a good athlete and has served well on the ball teams for the past two years. We'll remember Tommy's sense of humor and his ability to play a good game of ball.

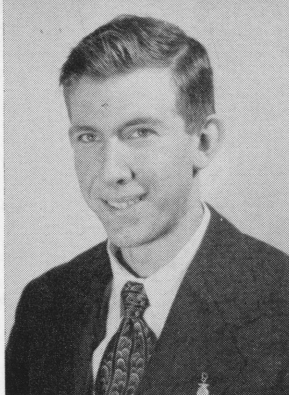

FRANK CALHOUN, JR.
Nashville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Frank leaves us many memories of his jokes, his friendliness, and his trombone. The new boys will remember Frank for helping them adapt themselves to college life.

REBA G. CLAYTON
Crossville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Reba is versatile and has talent and original ideas. She has her moments of mirth and madness and her moments of seriousness.

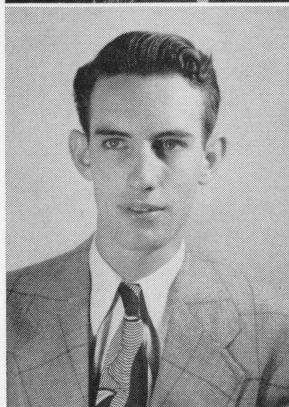

SENIOR CLASS

OLIVER FREDERICK COOK
Tullahoma, Tennessee
Science

Freddie is a hard worker and has the ability to do anything he is called on to do. Freddie is an earnest student and will reach the top in his goal for life. He impresses all of us with his courtesy.

G. L. COOPER
Rock Island, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Cooper livens up the classes with his discussions. We'll remember his basketball, his part in the Negro Minstrel and that he is from Rock Island.

JOSEPH CLAYTON COVINGTON
White House, Tennessee
Social Science

Laughter, that is what Clayton has given us. He can make any situation seem humorous. Clayton will live long in our memories as a boy who is always teasing.

BILL MOORE CRAWFORD
McEwen, Tennessee
Physical Education

Bill is an individualist around our campus. He has a good sense of humor but thinks very seriously. He has shown good sportsmanship in our basketball games.

ELIZABETH DUNCAN
Centerville, Tennessee
Commerce

Beth has played an important part in the life of Martin for the past two years. She is always willing to help her numerous friends. Beth's hobbies and interests are wide and extensive, among which is taking exercise on the fire escape.

CORINNE ROSS DUNNAVANT
Elkton, Tennessee
Education

Corinne has really become a part of the Martin scene. She is very friendly and has won the admiration of all the girls. We wish her success in her teaching career.

LLOYD FOUST
Minor Hill, Tennessee
Education

Lloyd seldom talks but when he does he has something to say. He takes his studies seriously and is making good preparation for becoming a teacher.

SARA ANN GEORGE
Saucier, Mississippi
Science

Sara has an endless flow of energy, whether in a basketball game or in the regular activities around the campus. She is well liked because she likes others.

MAXINE GILLIAM
Nashville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

When someone has to do it, we go to Maxine. She has that almost rare combination of logical sense and understanding heart.

HAROLD C. GLOVER
Madison, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

"Rosebud" is a boy of many abilities; he sings, plays ball, debates, and officiates at basketball games. We'll remember him for adding spice to classes through his debates with the teachers.

SENIOR CLASS

DYER GRISSOM
Rock Island, Tennessee
Social Science

Dyer is one of Martin's leading "Casanovas." When he's not practicing or playing ball, he can be found charming the ladies. He says "I wish I wasn't so bashful."

RAQUEL ANDREA GUTIERREZ
Central Preston, Cuba
Music

Hola Cuban! "If at once you don't succeed; try, try, again"—her motto concerning men, studies, men, life, and men. Music is her first name with "laugh" her second. You just naturally like to be around her.

CLARA HALBERT
Lebanon, Tennessee
Education

Clara is a quiet person yet in her reserved manner achieves her purpose. She has a cute way of talking and smiling. She applies herself to her work and can always be depended on to do the job.

LUCILLE HALL
Nashville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

"The lady with the light"—air, hair, care. She has that certain intangible quality that gives a sphinx-like touch to her personality.

JEAN HAMLETT
Pulaski, Tennessee
Home Economics

Jean's dimples make her very outstanding in appearance. Jean is demure and ladylike and has a funny way of prolonging her greeting of "Hi." She is well suited for her field of home economics.

JOAN HARWELL
Pulaski, Tennessee
Home Economics

Joan is a reserved person who has worked hard in her studies at Martin. She is a very conscientious person and has won the respect of all who have known her.

JOYCE HARWELL
Frankewing, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Joyce is an amiable person, friendly with every one, and easy to get along with. We will remember her pleasant smile and her constant sense of well-being.

WILLODENE HICKMAN
Lynnville, Tennessee
Education

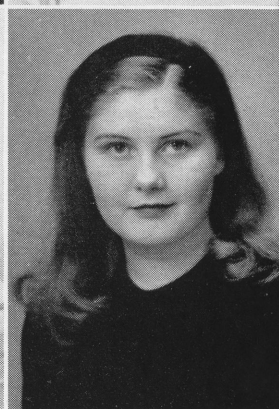

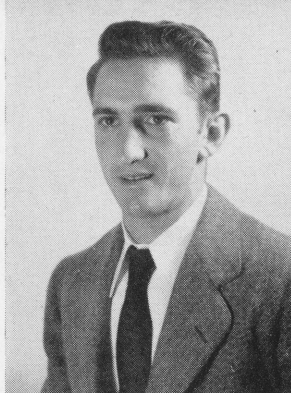

Willodene is always in a pleasant mood, ready to smile or pass on a bum joke. She remains in our memory as a studious girl with a winning personality.

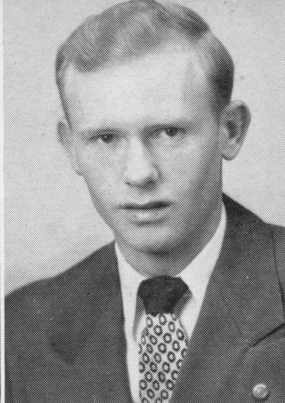

ANN HOLCOMB
Columbia, Tennessee
Commerce

Once she feels at ease around you, she opens up with a wealth of natural personality. She likes everyone and shows it with an odd but very warm smile. She should have a pleasant future, weather permitting.

JAMES HOLLY
Pulaski Tennessee
Physical Education

Is there anything he can't do? Basketball, sharing his warm personality, driving cars up icy hills. Here is a man.

SENIOR CLASS

CARL VAUGHN HORN
Sparta, Tennessee

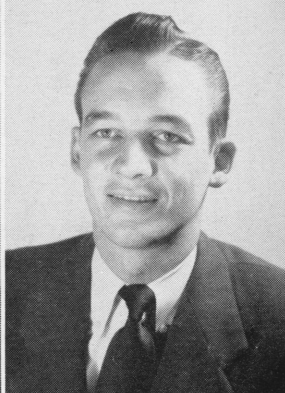

Art

Carl is an artist, one with talent and perserverance. Carl has a unique personality and a subtle sense of humor. He attempts occasionally to draw policemen's profiles.

JOHN ROBERT KEETON
Lynnville, Tennessee

Liberal Arts

Johnny isn't like most of us. He usually has something to say when he opens his mouth. He has the maturity of a man and the inspiration of a child.

CANNON KINNARD
Thompsons Station, Tennessee

Liberal Arts

Here is a man with a purpose. He can do much for the world—wait and see. He will be a credit to the ministry because he possesses insight and understanding. He's pretty good at basketball too.

WILLIAM ROBERT LANIUS
Columbia, Tennessee

Liberal Arts

There'll never be another! The mold was broken when Bob's spirit, enthusiasm, and understanding of life were fashioned.

JAMES LESTER
Pulaski, Tennessee

Liberal Arts

Jimmie has fun kidding girls, playing cards and studying biology. Jimmie has many friends and would do anything to help them.

BRUCE MATTHEWS
Lynnville, Tennessee

Art

"One dollar, who'll make it two?" Is the call we hear from Bruce. He has a bright future ahead as an auctioneer. Bruce has left us memories of his painting and his songs.

JOE MCCORMACK
Pulaski, Tennessee

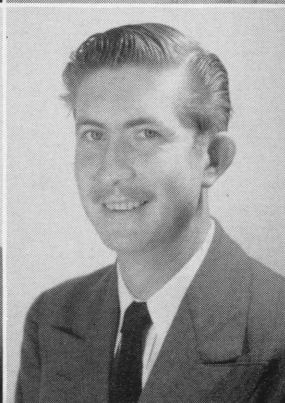

Commerce

Joe is a carefree fellow who takes life easily. He studies hard when the occasion arises that he must. Joe has a likeable personality and has won many friends.

EMOGENE MCKINNEY
Frankewing, Tennessee

Education

Emogene has contributed her talents of drama and music to the many activities of the college. She has made a good record in her studies and the extracurricular activities.

LEE MEDLEY
Pelham, Tennessee

Social Science

Lee is a quiet, religious person with a deep source of power. He has human understanding and a sense of humor which will aid him in his work as a minister.

JAMES MERRITT
Prospect, Tennessee

Art

His personality is even bigger than he is, with stores of warmth, kindness, and earnest endeavor. He made us a grand basketball captain. We feel proud to have known "Merritt."

MARTHA MITCHELL
Pulaski, Tennessee
Education

Martha has made a place in our memories as a religious leader, and basketball player. She has a determination and will which will bring her success.

FAYE MOORE
Linden, Tennessee
Physical Education

Faye has made an excellent record in sports while here at Martin. She has ability and genuine interest in athletics and will make a good physical education teacher.

JANE MORRIS
Wales, Tennessee
Home Economics

Jane has a charming personality and pleasant voice. She has those qualities which belong to a homemaker. Jane has served well in all things at Martin, especially basketball.

ROBERT LEE NEWMAN
Delrose, Tennessee
Social Science

Robert Lee is an independent person who likes to be self-sufficient. He has made a good scholastic record and found time to engage in other activities.

FRED NEWTON
Minor Hill, Tennessee
Education

Although he has a "foreign accent," we treat him like one of us. Fred expresses his humor in a very subtle manner. (It shakes the plaster off the walls when he laughs.)

WILLIAM ARMSTEAD OATES
Nashville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

We know he must have an iron constitution; he outlasted the bookstore mail call rush. He's good—through and through.

CAREY OLIVER, JR.
Pulaski, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Carey's ever present smile and friendliness have been a dominant part of life at Martin. He often can be seen "hanging around" Tennessee Hall and an attractive blonde.

BONNIE PERRY
Lawrenceburg, Tennessee
Home Economics

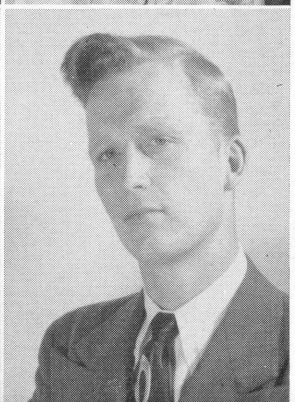

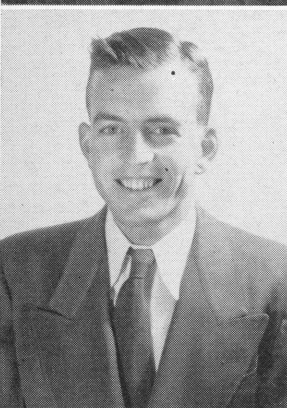

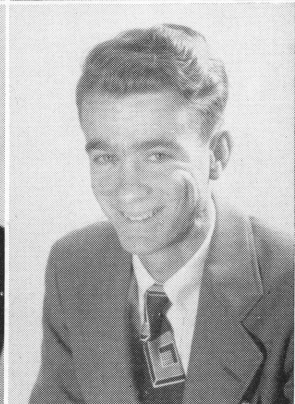

Bonnie is a demure, quiet person with a wealth of energy. She can be depended on, no matter how difficult the situation may be.

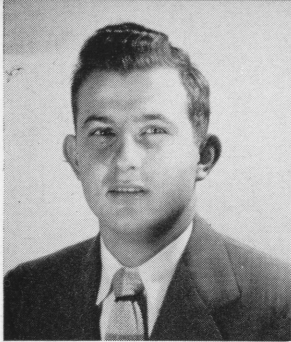

SHIRLEY POOLE
Pulaski, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Shirley is a carefree person filled with enthusiasm. His captivating smile and keen wit have made him an outstanding person at Martin.

JOHN WILLIAM POTTS
Nashville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Billy can be found studying Biology almost any time of the day. His numerous questions in class seem to indicate his extreme interest or confusion in his studies. His understanding, cheerful personality will certainly be a great aid to him in his work as a minister.

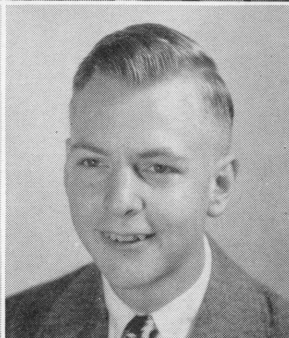

SENIOR CLASS

JAMES PULLEY
Prospect, Tennessee
Commerce

James has learned at least one thing at Martin—he has mastered the art of playing pinochle. James is very friendly and a good athlete.

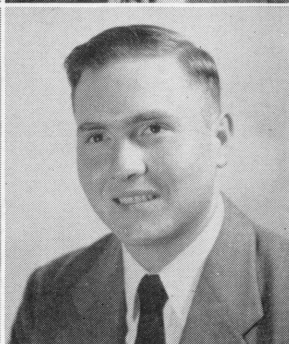

WILLODEAN RASBURY
Waynesboro, Tennessee
Education

Willodean has served well in the capacity of "Sunshine Chairman" with her cards, fruit, and flowers for those who are ill. She is willing to work and does her job well.

DORIS SANDERS
Lawrenceburg, Tennessee
Commerce

"Funny" describes Doris' actions, reactions, and transactions. She is versatile and enters into all the activities around the campus. One of her pet likes is popcorn, served a la midnight.

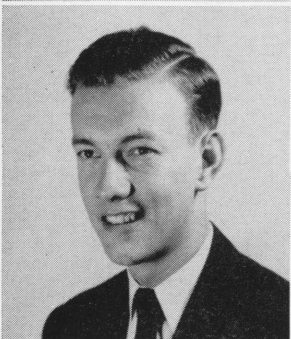

ROBERT SCHAEFFER
McMinnville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Robert is an unusual character, he has no definite hours of studying (any hour of the day or night will do.) He pats his feet and drums his fingers to keep pace with the rapid entrance of knowledge.

VIOLET SETTLE
Dover, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

To really know Violet, you have to see her brown eyes dancing and her cheeks glowing. She's priceless.

PAUL THOMAS SHASTEEN
Estill Springs, Tennessee
Social Science

Paul is well liked because of his friendliness and his ability to carry on an interesting conversation. Through the many responsible positions he has held, Paul has proved his dependableness.

BILLY SHIPP
Centerville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Billy livens any conversation with his original and sound ideas. He is very sincere, independent, and has a unique sense of humor.

ALLENE WILLIAMS
Pulaski, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

Tootie's gay, bright laughter can be heard at almost any time, any place, or any distance. Her sweet personality will long be remembered at Martin.

JAMES C. WOODS
Cornersville, Tennessee
Liberal Arts

"Peace! Peace! We must have peace!" and to hear him in Fundamentals of Speech, you'd believe it too. That quiet exterior belies the enthusiasm of his soul.

DON YATES
Cross Plains, Tennessee
Physical Education

"Cross Plains is just a (little bit) better than Elkton," is Don's opinion. Don is an all-around athlete; basketball, soft ball, or just name it and he can play it.

TOM YOKLEY
Pulaski, Tennessee
Business

"Tom Tom" is a typical college boy with his atypical clothes and carefree air. In almost any class he can be found in the corner, sound asleep, (typical boy, no?)

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

The purpose of this organization is to encourage its members to carry their religious training and background into their chosen vocations. Its membership includes not only persons planning to enter full-time Christian service work, but all persons interested in spreading the teachings of Christ through their actions and attitudes.

CHORUS

The chorus is an accredited organization for the purpose of meeting the need of and furthering interest in music. It provides an outlet for musical self-expression and appreciation of the art of music. The present chorus has provided entertainment and culture for the college through the presentation of the Dixieland Minstrel, The Mystery of the Nativity, and the Operetta, The Enchanted Isle.

PHI THETA KAPPA

The Phi Theta Kappa is an honorary, non-secret organization whose purpose is to promote scholarship, develop character, and cultivate fellowship among the students of junior colleges throughout America. The Phi Theta Kappa supports the ideals and worthy activities of the college.

MISS HOME ECONOMICS

"Miss Home Economics" is an honor title awarded each year to the girl chosen as the most outstanding home economics major. Eligibility for the honor is determined by high scholastic average, by active participation in school activities, and by outstanding personality traits.

P. K. GROUP

"Preachers Kids," sons and daughters of ministers, feel a common tie that binds them together.

TEACHER TRAINING GROUP

This group of future teachers, although unorganized, have an interest in each other which stimulates and inspires them as to the need and importance of the preparation for their vocation.

CAMPUS

VIOLET SETTLE

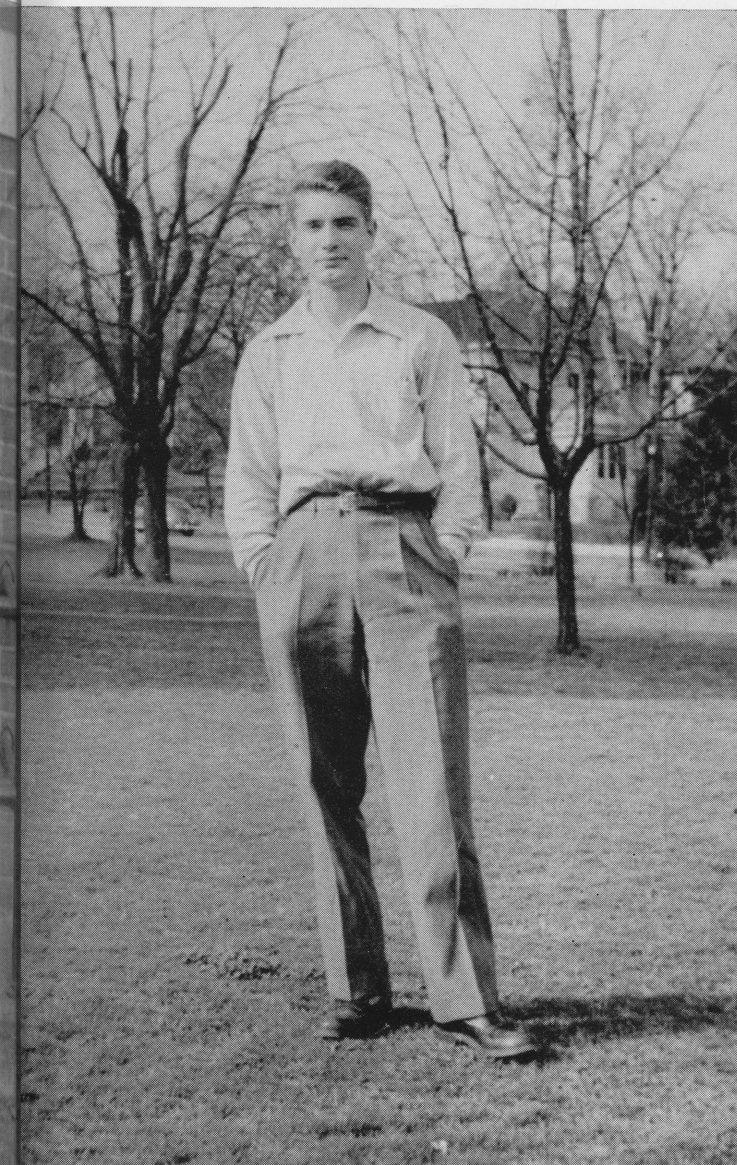

We'll remember Violet as the little girl who is active in everything around the campus. She has a pleasing appearance and is kind and willing to help. She is a good leader in Christian work and in everything she does, a tireless worker. Violet is a symbol of womanhood, a lady at all times.

ARMSTEAD OATES

Armstead is a steady influence around the campus. He is outstanding in many ways, as a student, as a leader, and for his Christ-like sincerity. Armstead has great human understanding and a genuine interest in the welfare of others.

PERSONALITIES

FRANK CALHOUN

We'll remember Frank for his trombone, his voice, and his pleasant smile. His music has left a deep impression upon our lives, even his midnight serenades. Frank has a likeable disposition and it's fun to be with him. We have known Frank as a loyal supporter of the school and its activities.

JOYCE HARWELL

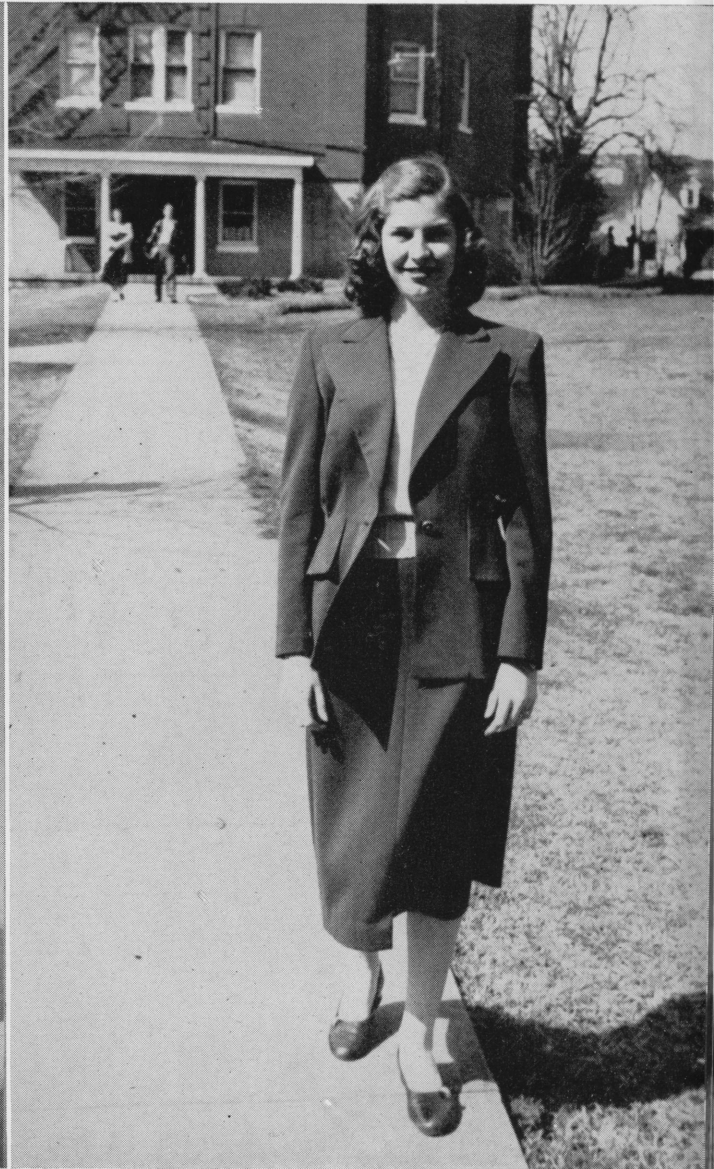

In Joyce we find a combination of all that is attractive and gracious. Bubbling with enthusiasm, she is adaptable to every situation, a formal tea, an informal gathering, or a chemistry laboratory. Joyce is a good student who finds time for the little extra things of college life.

CAMPUS

BILL STARNES

Bill knows how to meet people, how to win their confidence, and what to say to them. He is understanding, dependable, and willing to help others. He takes his studies seriously and with the right attitude. Bill is a good leader and a good spokesman for the Christian religion.

PEGGY JO SMITH

Peggy Jo is an outstanding freshman. She is friendly, vivacious and has a well rounded personality. It is good just to listen to the pleasant tones of her soft, smooth voice. Peggy Jo has made a good cheerleader and has livened the basketball games with her pep and enthusiasm.

PERSONALITIES

LUCY McDONALD

Lucy's wild sense of humor has brightened the atmosphere of Martin. She is known for "that charming laugh." Lucy is a capable, cooperative worker, who is gifted with unusual talent. She has shared this talent with us in the varied activities of the school, especially through her music.

CLAUDE MILLICAN

He greets each day with a smile and pleasant words and answers to the name "Crow Lee." "Crow Lee" is fun to be around; he is a good mixer, an interesting conversationalist, and a true friend. He is outstanding because he can always be found around the campus having a good time.
